PROJECTS:

- Major Project: -“AUTOMATED FOURWAY HAKSAW MACHINE.”

AIM : This project proposes the model of four way hacksaw machine which is able to cut four pieces (may be of same or different material) simultaneously with a very less time consumption. The model using dc motor for its operation. Conversion of rotary motion of dc motor into reciprocating motion is obtained by using eccentric cam. This model can perform a cutting operation on four different components of different material simultaneously. It becomes very useful in industry due to its efficiency, reliability and compatibility.
